New Overtime Rules

What Employers Need to Know

The Department of Labor released final rules on May 18, 2016, changing the regulations governing overtime pay under the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) that will make millions of exempt employees eligible for overtime pay.

Effective: December 1, 2016

The countdown is on. Employers must comply with the new regulations by December 1, 2016.

Attend a workshop to learn more!

You're invited to attend an informative workshop conducted by a team of local experts assembled by the Chamber. The workshops will provide information that will help employers prepare for the new law.
